The Road Not Taken

Two roads diverged in a yellow wood,
And sorry I could not travel both
And be one traveler, long I stood
And looked down one as far as I could
To where it bent in the undergrowth;

Then took the other, as just as fair,
And having perhaps the better claim,
Because it was grassy and wanted wear;
Though as for that the passing there
Had worn them really about the same,

And both that morning equally lay
In leaves no step had trodden black.
Oh, I kept the first for another day!
Yet knowing how way leads on to way,
I doubted if I should ever come back.

I shall be telling this with a sigh
Somewhere ages and ages hence:
Two roads diverged in a wood, and I—
I took the one less traveled by,
And that has made all the difference.

Fall Annual Broke Tradition

Yes, on the afternoon of September 20, 1966, the seniors broke the tradition of having a Spring Annual with an overwhelming vote of 90-8.

The seniors were confronted with the choice of a Spring or Fall delivery in a senior class meeting that morning. As soon as the announcements at noon were over, the seniors cast their democratic vote, making the fall delivery official.

Special features of this year's annual were more action shots of organizations and classes. The Senior Class Play, the 1967 track and golf teams, the Junior-Senior Prom, National Honor Society Induction, Junior-Senior Luncheon, Awards Day, the Top Ten Seniors, Baccalaureate, and Graduation were included among the features of the 1967 annual.

Beacon Informed Students at C.H.S.

One of the more important activities of the Senior year was the monthly publication of the Beacon. The staff, with Beverly Coalmer as editor, and Jay Dee French as co-editor, filled each issue with the latest news about clubs and their activities, sports of every season, and conflicting school problems. To inflect humor, there were song dedications, short stories, and "Were You There When. . ." columns that told of strange, but humorous happenings to students. Also, of interest were feature stories, editorials, short stories, Campus Corner, and the Outstanding Senior of the month.

Editor B. Coalmer and Assistant Editor J. D. French met a layout deadline.

"Do you need change? Be sure to go to each homeroom" were comments heard as the circulation committee, headed by Jan Brittain, readied the Beacon for distribution.

The National Honor Society was organized to promote the four qualities which are required for membership: scholarship, leadership, service, and character. The students selected must have attained a 3.0 or B average scholastically, must be leaders in school, serve in both school and community, and have excellent character. Ten percent of the senior class and five percent of the junior class may be selected, if eligible, at the end of the first semester grading period.

A courtroom scene highlighted tapping ceremonies for the induction of eleven senior and five juniors into NHS this past year. Conducting the ceremony were members selected the previous year. Marjorie Way, Janet Gregg, Constance Perrin, Marla Halverstadt, Beverly Holloway, Barbara Isaksson, and Robert Exten. Parents of the honorees mounted the stage and presented the new members with pins and yellow roses.

The Honor Society members were entitled to wear stoles featuring the NHS emblem at graduation exercises.

This years NHS worked diligently by magazine sales, jitney sales, and other money-making projects for a new bulletin board for the school. The bulletin board will be placed on the square in Columbiana.

J. Cross was tapped by M. Halverstadt, while excited faces looked on.

D. Stamp was pinned by his mother.

Student Council Prepared to Publish 'Handbook'

K. McNab presides over Student Council.

The school is represented for many important school activities by the Student Council. They are responsible for all after-game dances, for the Pigskin Prom, for election of class officers and cheerleaders, and their greatest responsibility is arranging everything for the Football and Basketball Homecomings.

Last year as one of its fund raising projects, the Student Council held a "Gold Tape" contest to see who could make the longest string of gold tapes. Jan Orr won the contest with a string of ninety-six feet.

For the last several years the Student Council has been working on a "Student Handbook," which will be published in September of 1967. It will inform students and their parents about school activities, list the faculty, and provide written rules and regulations for all students attending Columbiana High School.

C.H.S. Concert Band

The Columbiana Street Fair and the Columbiana County Fair were two memorable days for the C.H.S. band members during the fall.

The winter concert "Meet The Band" and the spring concert "Farewell To Winter" were great successes due to the many hours of extra practice put in by the band members and director.

Because of the band's superior (I) rating at the district contest, they went to the state contest where they received an excellent (II) rating.

In May, the C.H.S. band was invited to march in a parade and play in a concert at the annual invitational concert for exceptional area bands, which was held in Salem.

The townspeople were given a free look at the band's form during the Memorial Day Parade and the fourth of July concert.

Commencement was the final appearance for the senior band members.

"There Is Beauty in Music"

The Thanksgiving Concert at the Grace Church moved the chorus to a full and lively schedule for 1966-1967. Again in November, an invitation from the Packard Music Hall was acknowledged to perform on the last Sunday of that month. The Christmas concert ended a completely successful year, leaving the chorus members looking excitedly to the next year.

On Ash Wednesday the Grace Church held services to which the chorus added beauty and serenity. Leaving those scenes behind the chorus enjoyed a tour of Lisbon, Poland, and Crestview.

Then the day everyone waited for--District 8 contest. The high school chorus received a II, but the girls chorus went on to the State contest held April 29.

The last concert for the group was the Spring Concert with the theme, "Farewell to Winter."

Then as graduation neared, the seniors said good-bye to the chorus behind them, and hello to the world in front of them. They will be singing as they go, for it is when one sings that there is happiness, and happiness is the beauty, and truly "there is beauty in music."

Sr. Tri-Hi-Y Sent Christmas Packages to VietNam

Under the guidance of Mrs. Maxine Churchin, the Senior Tri-Hi-Y had a very active year. Carrying out such projects as selling World Service candy, making cancer pads, providing for a fund to be used as a student scholarship, and collecting and sending useful Christmas packages to three servicemen in Viet Nam, the club placed much emphasis on service.

The club members devoted much time to participating in programs made available by the YMCA. The Senior Tri-Hi-Y had a team in the girls' basketball league and the co-ed riflery. The basketball team went on to be the league champions. There were, also, two teams in the Tri-Hi-Y - Hi-Y bowling league representing the club. A member of the club was elected vice-president of the Columbiana Council. For the second year, the senior Tri-Hi-Y participated in the Youth in Government program held annually in Columbus. Several members also, participated in the Civic Day program on April 20.

This years' Senior Tri-Hi-Y club was voted the "Tri-Hi-Y Club of the Year" last year in Columbiana County by the YMCA. Through its various activities the club worked hard, hoping to receive the honor a second time.

Junior Tri-Hi-Y Sold "Katydids"

Under the guidance of Mrs. Michaels and the leadership of their president, Elizabeth Crawford, the Junior Tri-Hi-Y had an interesting year.

The club participated in many of the programs offered by the YMCA. They had two teams competing in the Hi-Y--Tri-Hi-Y bowling league, one team in the Tri-Hi-Y basketball league, and one team in the Tri-Hi-Y volleyball league.

Debbie Hudson and Linda Perkins were the club's delegates to the Youth in Government program held in Columbus.

The girls had jitney sales and sold "Katydids" as their money-making projects.

In the field of service, the club aided the YMCA by selling World Service Candy.

Junior Tri-Hi-Y Officers: (Seated) A. Pancake-Treasurer; L. Forney-Vice-President. (Standing) E. Crawford-President; N. Reash-Secretary; E. Cunningham-Chaplain.

The Tri-Hi-Y girls read the pamphlets on hair styling.

P. Barnes gave her demonstration as K. Morris looked on.

The Sophomore Tri-Hi-Y has come to the end of a very busy and active year, with many projects and programs completed.

Induction services for members headed the list of social events with a skating party planned for the winter. A bake sale and candy sale proved to be effective money-making projects as the group made a great profit this year.

Four interesting programs provided entertainment for the Tri-Hi-Y members. Flower arrangements were the center of attention for one program. Exchange students from Australia and Switzerland spoke of their homelands. A librarian also gave her time to the club.

For the service projects last year, they made Thanksgiving baskets for the needy, served dinners and ushered concerts.

Now that the year has ended, the club will be able to rest until fall when they will begin as the Junior Tri-Hi-Y.

The Sophomore Tri-Hi-Y combined with the Junior Tri-Hi-Y for election of officers.

Freshman Tri-Hi-Y Held Slave Auction

The Freshman Tri-Hi-Y held its induction service in September with a supper following the ceremony. During the year they sent clothing, toys, and other materials to the people in Alaska through VISTA. They, also, raised money to help needy people by having jitney sales, candy sales, and a slave auction. The slave auction was held in the auditorium and each Tri-Hi-Y girl was sold to the highest bidder to help her owner do whatever work was needed to be done. Advised by Mrs. Bair, they had quite an active club with their money-raising projects and a Tri-Hi-Y basketball and rifle team.

Freshman Tri-Hi-Y Officers: D. Kunkle-Treasurer; S. Brown-Secretary; S. Jones-President; R. Crawford-Chaplain; J. Orr-Vice-President.

Hi-Y Captured Football Championship

Hi-Y is a national organization of Christian boys who are high school juniors and seniors. Its purpose is to create, maintain, and extend throughout the home, school, and community high standards of Christian character. Out 1966-1967 Hi-Y was an active club due to the active participation of its 57 members. Mr. McDanel was the advisor and Terry Knisely,president. Soon after school began, a flag football team was organized for the first time in our school history. The team was very popular to the local club, and the Hi-Y had the honor of winning the Columbiana Council Championship with a record of 6-0-1. The end of the football season brought a large response for bowling. The four teams performed well throughout the season. Two basketball teams were, also, organized for play in the Columbiana Council district. One went on to win the championship. Hi-Y members, also, participated in riflery. Civics Day on April 20, 1967 highlighted the year's activities as members visited the profession of their choice in order to better able to plan for the future.

President, T. Knisely conducted Hi-Y meetings.

Spanish Club Christmas Party Highlighted Year

Twenty-six members of the C.H.S. Spanish Club met two Wednesdays each month to gain a better understanding of Spanish speaking countries and their people. The club, with Mrs. Churchin as advisor, held many interesting programs on various Spanish topics. The Christmas program highlighted the year, with the members participating in Spanish games and eating Spanish food. Nancy Hum broke the "Santa Claus" pinata and everyone scrambled for the candy which had been inside. Speakers at other meetings included Mr. Arn, who talked about his work in Gautemala and the Mexican exchange student, David Simental, who spoke on life of the teenager in Mexico.

J. Brittain, C. Perrin, M. Hanna, and B. Holloway presented a skit for entertainment.

FTA Prepared for Future Occupation

Future Teachers of America in Ohio have a main desire or objective to secure an adequate and continuing supply of effective teachers for Ohio's schools. The club is directed toward orienting high school students to the teaching profession, guiding them, and counseling them to help them evaluate themselves in relation to a teaching career.

At Columbiana, membership is open to juniors and seniors. Last year's members did student teaching on November 21 through the 23, March 20 through the 22, and any time a teacher needed a substitute at Joshua Dixon and Southside. They, also, had a jitney sale and participated in several other projects to earn money for an F. T. A. scholarship for a senior member intending to begin a teaching career.

President, J. Gregg, gave teaching assignments.

FTA Officers: J. Gregg - President; D. Ruhl - Librarian; B. Isaksson - Vice-President; B. Noble - Treasurer; M. Hanna - Secretary.

This year at C.H.S., one of the most active clubs in our school was the Future Scientists of America. The purpose of the club, which was chartered in 1965, was to stimulate interest in science and to learn about opportunities in and training for careers in science.

In order to achieve these goals, the FSA has presented to its fifty-three members: scientific films, talks by scientists, reports from members attending scientific meetings, and tours through industries and places of scientific interest.

Last year the F.S.A. attended science forums on computers and medicine in Boardman. They also heard discussions by an optometrist, a pharmacist, an engineer, and others.

The highlights of the year were the two assemblies presented through the club efforts to the school in which representatives from the atomic center in Oak Ridge, Tennessee and from NASA presented extremely interesting programs.

Members of Home Ec Club Learned

"Tricks of Their Trade"

The Home Economics Club was formed for the promotion of individual growth by developing physical, social, and moral qualities, for the promotion of better home living, for the provision of wholesome recreational activities, and for the action as a unit for giving service to the school, community, state, and union.

The Cleveland Flower Show was attended in February by the aid of bake sales and pizza sales.

Many of the Home Ec Club members were especially interested in that club for a general education in homemaking, which relates to the motto "Better Homes for a Better Nation."

Mrs. Keylor and M. Grant planned an interesting program.

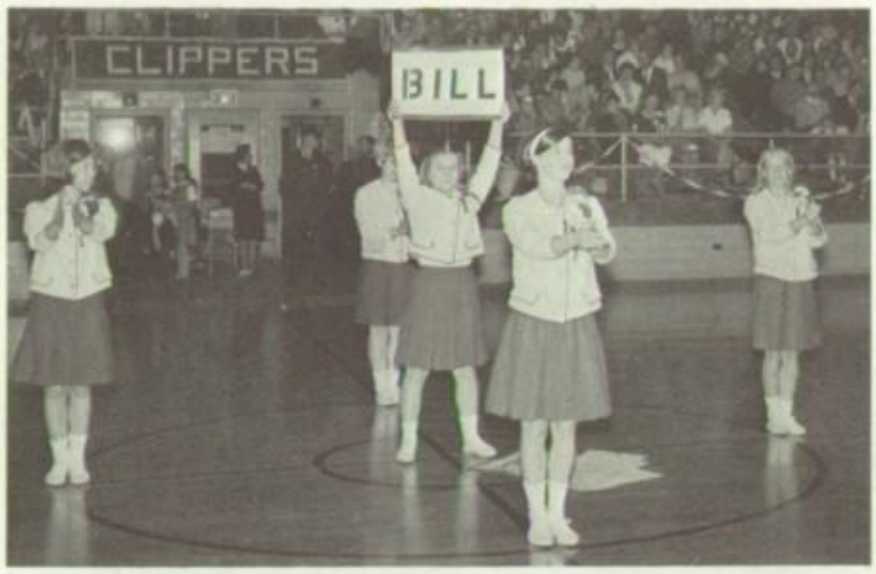
President, J. Little made a proposal to the club.

Pep Club Worked to Stimulate School Spirit

School enthusiasm was tremendous this last year. As the Clippers entered the gymnasium, the cheerleaders took the floor, and the pep club showed its ability by shouting new and exciting cheers taught them by the cheerleaders. Its members contributed largely to the success of the team and school spirit was soaring sky-high.

When our boys submitted to the feeling of defeat, the pep club cheered the team on in loud, boisterous voices, to "Get that ball and fight! Hit 'em again, hit 'em again, harder! harder! ..." But there's a certain satisfaction a pep club members feels when the team wins. Yes, it's the type of satisfaction one feels to know he's a Clipper - a mighty, mighty Clipper.

The Homecoming climaxed each season, and the pep club decorated for each. The Athletic Banquet, held in April, also decorated by the pep club, honored the teams and their coaches, climaxing a full year of athletic competition.



The cheerleaders led the pep section in a new cheer.

Pep Rallies usually had entertaining skits, as this one.

Librarians, Projectionists, Nurse's Aides Served

At C.H.S. last year many students were given the opportunity to serve the faculty and their fellow classmates in various service groups. These groups included: nurse's aides, librarians, and projectionists.

The nurse's aides had to be reliable, capable, responsible, and trustworthy girls. They were chosen and supervised by Mrs. Gloss. She preferred junior and senior girls. Some girls volunteered for the job, but others were appointed. These girls all had to have a study hall that they could afford to give up and some knowledge of first aid.

They kept the nurse's room in order, cleaning and putting first-aid supplies in place. They assisted with the measuring and weighing of all the students by recording heights and weights on special forms. The nurse's aides gave simple first aid and if the injury was serious, or the child was very ill they notified Mrs. Gloss. The girls were also responsible for notifying a student's teacher when that student was in the nurse's room all period. They kept a record of students who came to the room listing: name, date, time, reason, and treatment given.

Student librarians worked for the amiable Mrs. Liston as her assistants. Every day they performed such duties as preparing library reports for study hall teachers. They prepared and distributed forms for overdue books and assisted in the return of encyclopedias, books, and magazines. Vocational guidance catalogues and brochures were filed by them. Librarians distributed master sets and enrichment materials to faculty members and helped schedule classroom audiovisual materials.

The projection staff members, also under the direction of Mrs. Liston, were chosen from the sophomore, junior, and senior classes to show movies and to offer other services. Selection was based on interest, scheduled courses and grade average. Projectionists showed movies primarily in the classroom, but were also available for special events, meetings, and community organizations.

S. Bowman and K. McNab checked through the files for material.

The Buckeye -- A Symbol of the State of Ohio

The Buckeye--a symbol of the great state of Ohio.

Girls' and Boys' State--A tree of knowledge teaching the roots and branches of state government.

The Girls' State delegates who went to Capital University this past summer were Gayle Warner and Elizabeth Crawford. The alternates were Pamela Lipe and Suzanne Chesney.

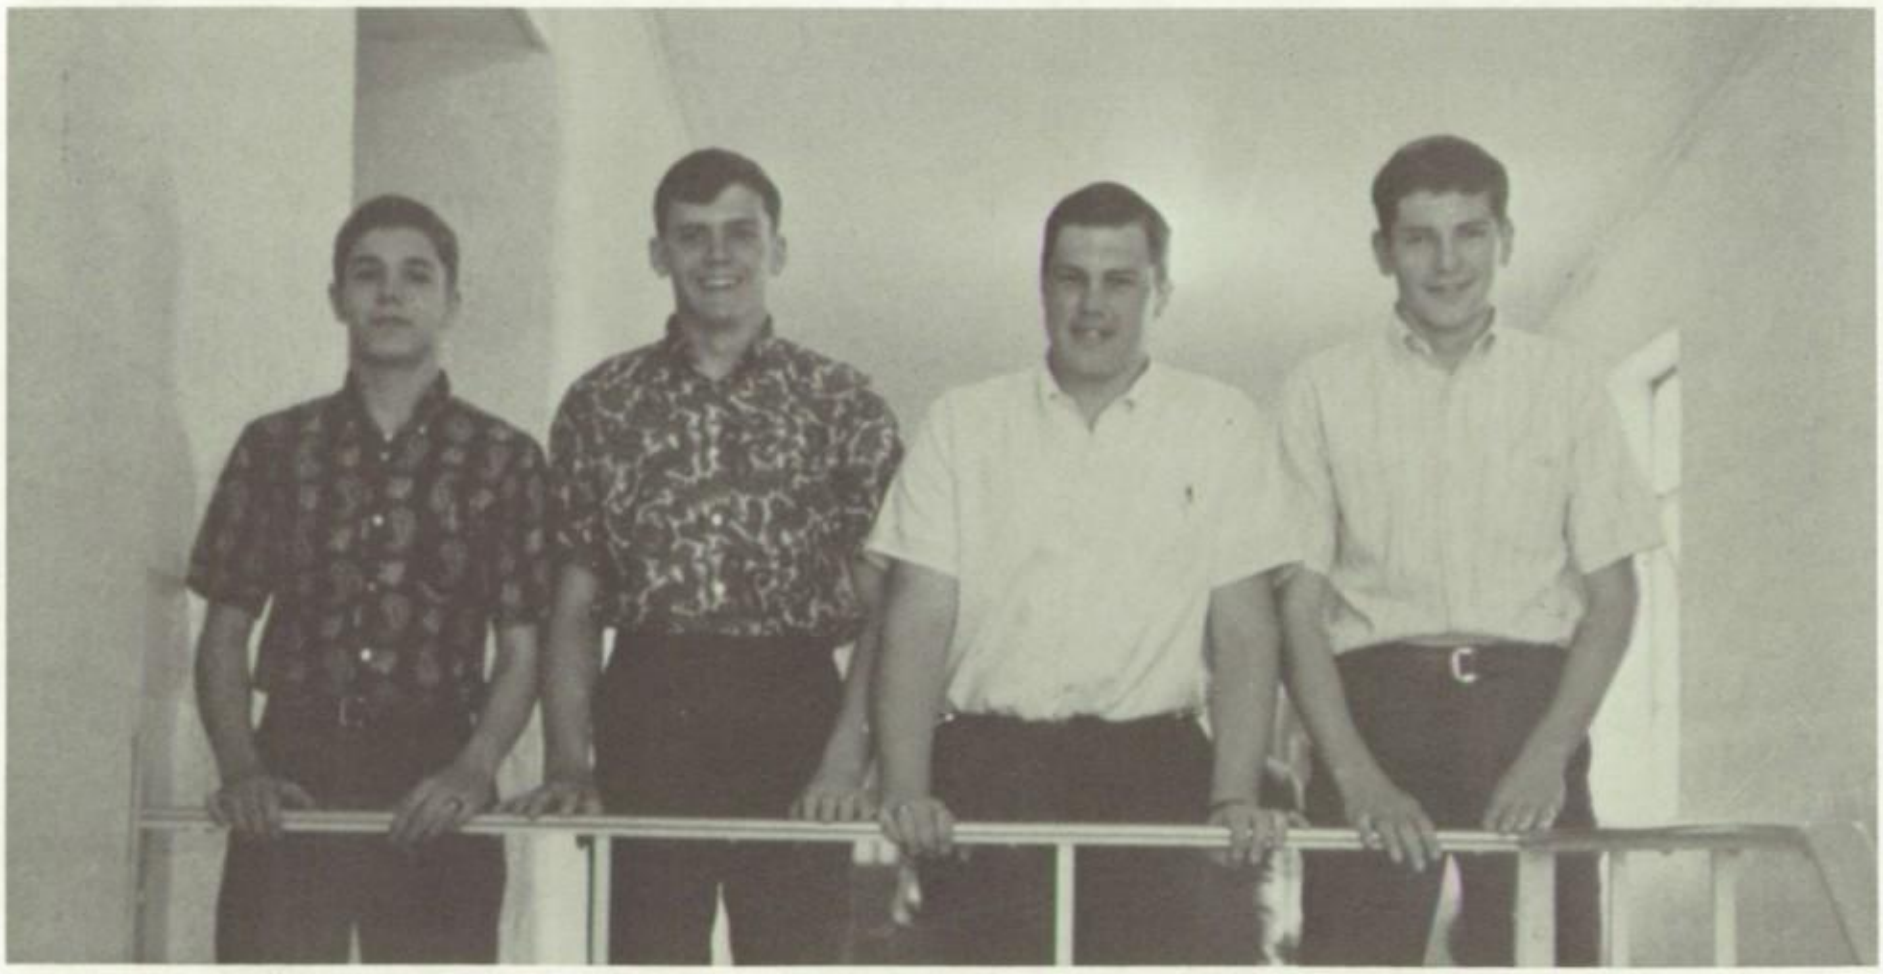
This years' Boys' State delegates who went to Ohio University from June 8 through June 16 were Dean Stamp and William Gela. Their alternates were George Vestfals and William Cyrus.

Sponsored by the American Legion, the delegates must be in the junior class, achieve better than average grades, be recommended by the principal and history teacher, possess qualities of leadership, sportsmanship, service, personality, and ability to compete with others of like standing.

During their stay, the delegates overtook all state, county, and city positions of government after first campaigning and electing each official from the students present.

The boy and girl delegates also followed the annual tradition of kidnapping each other's governor. They also heard several exceptional speakers. All delegates thoroughly enjoyed their stay and will remember this experience as one of the best in their lives.

Delegates: G. Warner, E. Crawford. Alternates: P. Lipe, S. Chesney.



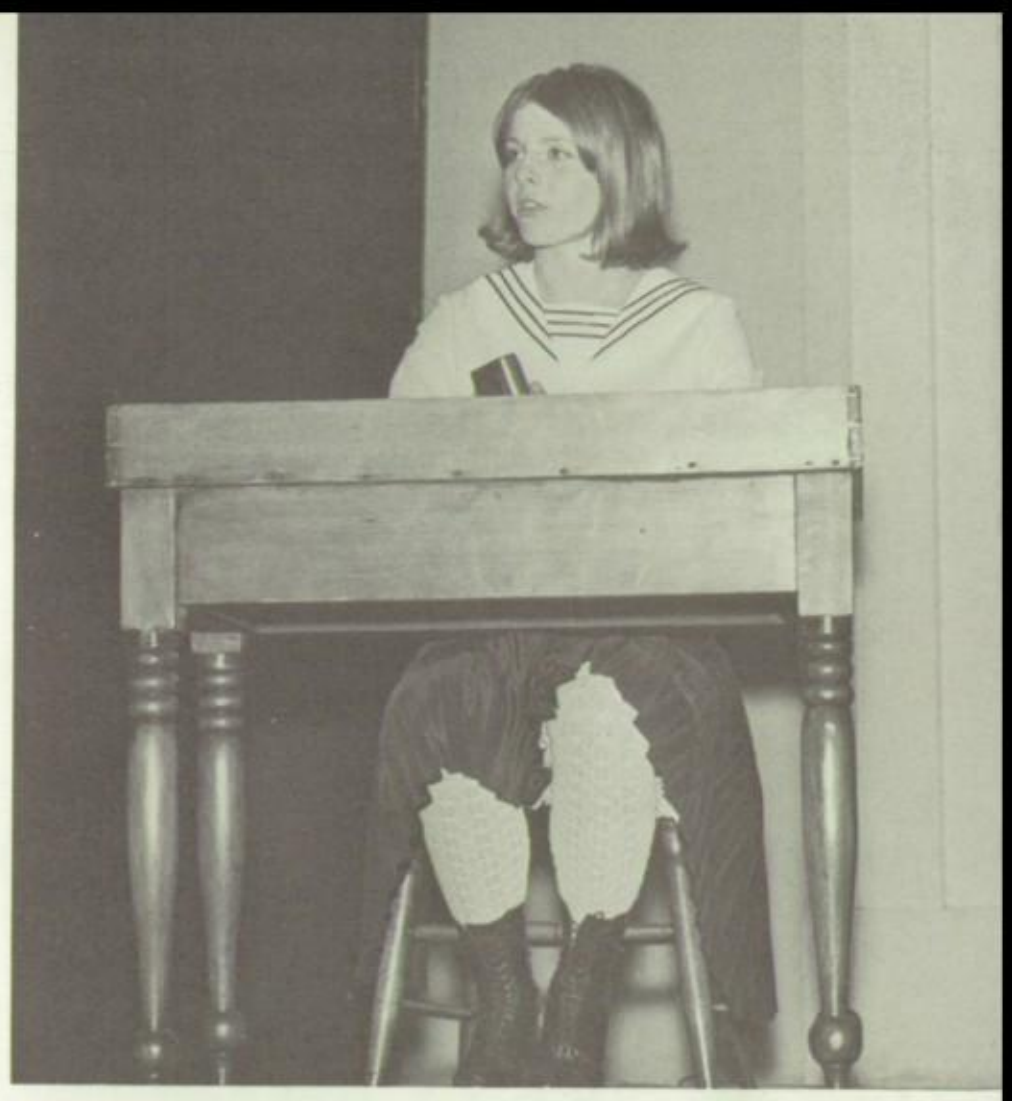
Delegates: D. Stamp, W. Gela. Alternates: W. Cyrus, G. Vestfals.

Junior Class Presented "I Remember Mama"

"I Remember Mama" by John van Druten is adapted from a short story by Kathryn Forbes entitled MAMA'S BANK ACCOUNT.

The story is a flashback, told by Katrine Hansen, the eldest of the Hansen children, of the hardships and good times of a wonderfully warm immigrant Norwegian family in San Francisco of the early 1900's. It shows how Mama, the main character, with the help of her husband and Uncle Chris, brings up her children. A sweet and capable manager, she sees her children through childhood, manages to give them an education, and sees her eldest daughter begin a writing career. Mama's sisters and uncle provide a great deal of comedy and a little incidental tragedy, while the children keep everyone in pleasant turmoil throughout the story.

"I Remember Mama" was successfully presented by the Junior Class on November eighteenth and nineteenth at 7:30 p.m. under the direction of James Dapollonia and Student Director, Pam Lipe.



B. Dunbar, as Katrina, told how "first and foremost" she remembered Mama.

Mama (C. Dalrymple) explained to Katrina, Papa (D.J. Gaughn), Kristine (L. Sposetta), and Nels (T. Smith) about the bank account she didn't really have.

Seniors Presented American Classic

OUR TOWN by Thornton Wilder was chosen by Mr. Dapollonia, director, as the Senior Class Play. It is an unconventional drama which centers around the Gibbs' and Webb's families. It takes place in Grover's Corners, New Hampshire. The time is the early 1900's. The chief character, the Stage Manager, narrates the play. Scenes from the play include glimpses into the daily lives of the Gibbs' and Webb's, the courtship and marriage of Emily Webb and George Gibbs, Emily's funeral and her return to the living. The theme of the play is man's failure to appreciate life while he is living it.

The seniors worked hard on the play for six weeks and presented it on April 7th and 8th. The money made was used to rent the senior's caps and gowns.

David Weber portrayed the Stage Manager who was the main character.

Rebecca (Margery Way) pestered George (Terrence Knisely) while he did his homework.

George (Terrence Knisely) and Emily (Karen Frank) first realized that they were in love while drinking "Strawberry Sodas" at the local drugstore.

Emily's soul (Karen Frank) joined the dead in the cemetery.

Seniors Feasted at Juniors' Expense

May 3, 1967, was set for the annual Junior-Senior Luncheon at the Methodist Church. The luncheon started at quarter till one with the Junior Class Boys' Social Chairman, Rick Noel, as Master of Ceremonies. Mr. Gloss gave the invocation and the dinner was served. Afterward Rick humorously introduced Greg Young, president of the junior class and John Cross, president of the senior class who reminisced the school year. Mr. D. W. Bailey, superintendent of schools, gave the seniors four parting points for success, and at two o'clock luncheon matters were dispersed and everyone retired to the auditorium in the high school for a very enjoyable movie, "Cheaper by the Dozen."

R. Noel greeted the seniors at their last banquet.

Seniors laughed at a "smoking graduate."

J. Cross joked during his speech.

Juniors and seniors gladly forgot the cafeteria for a day.

"Realm Beneath the Sea"

"Realm Beneath the Sea" was the theme of the 1967 Junior-Senior Prom held April 14. The juniors did a fine job under the direction of Mrs. Talbot and the prom chairmen Gayle Warner and Richard Noel.

The freshmen slaves dressed as pirates served punch and snacks to the attending couples.

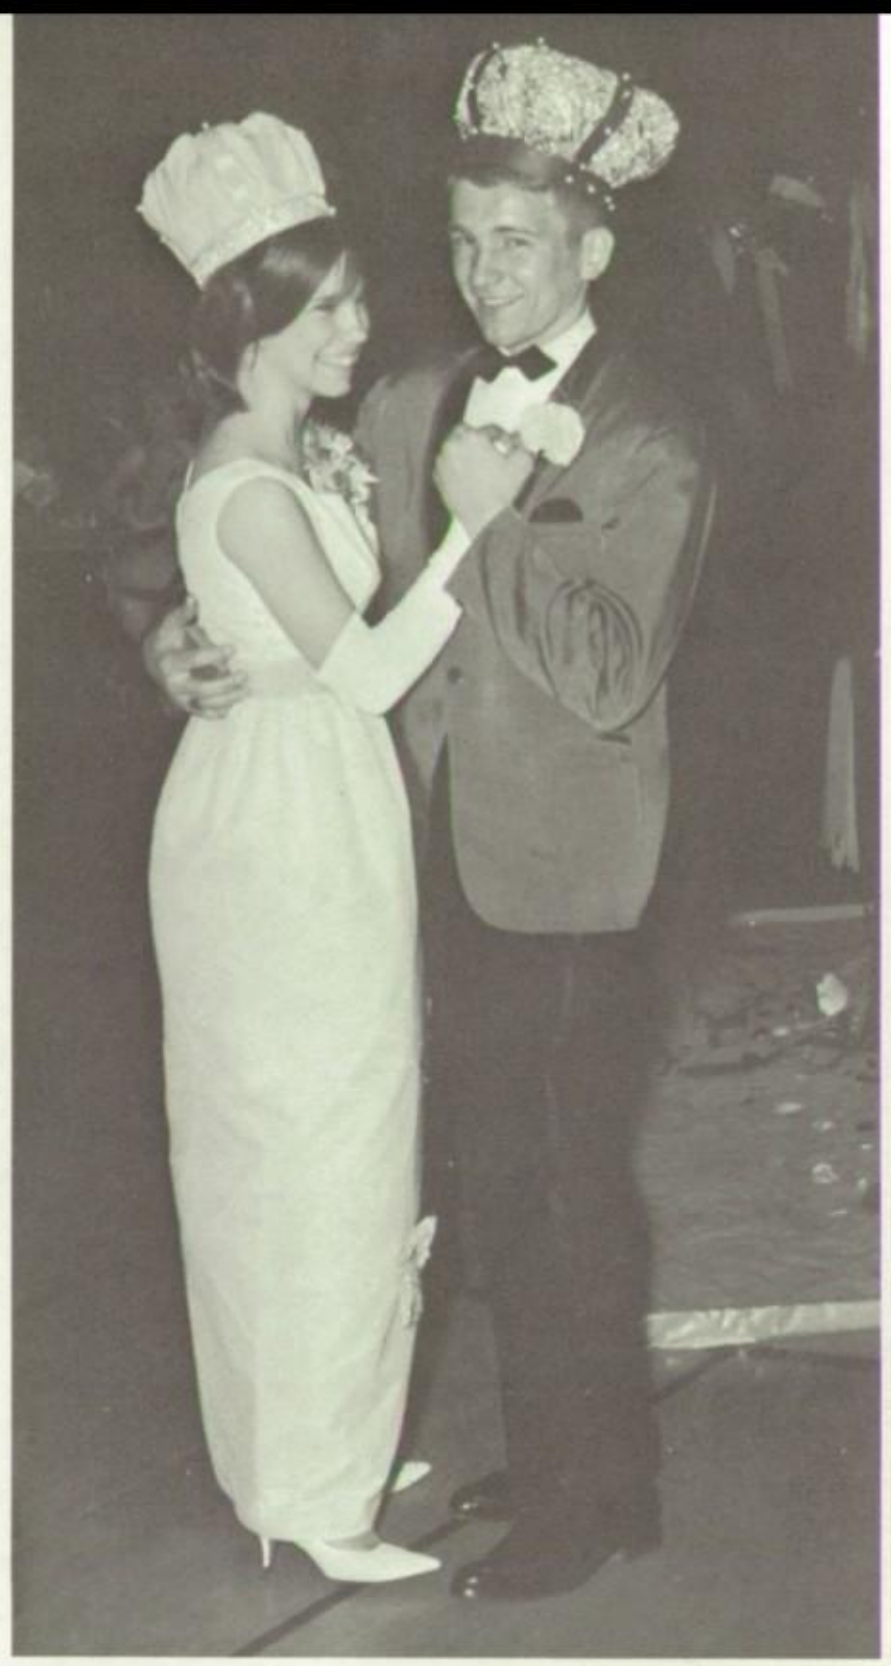
The results of the election of prom royalty were announced by Greg Young, Junior class president. John Cross and Barbara Isaksson reigned as Prom King and Queen with Terrence Knisely and Sherry Rapp as the Prince and Princess.

The couples enjoyed dancing to the music provided by Bob Nesbeth and his band. At midnight everyone left a little sadly, but all were soon looking forward to the After-Prom held at Joshua Dixon School.

"The Circle C Ranch" provided food and fun for the hungry couples, who discovered they weren't as tired as they thought.

Dance music was furnished by the Pied Pipers. Entertainment was provided by Hal Greene and his honky-tonk piano, and Vince Andrulis called the rounds for square dancing.

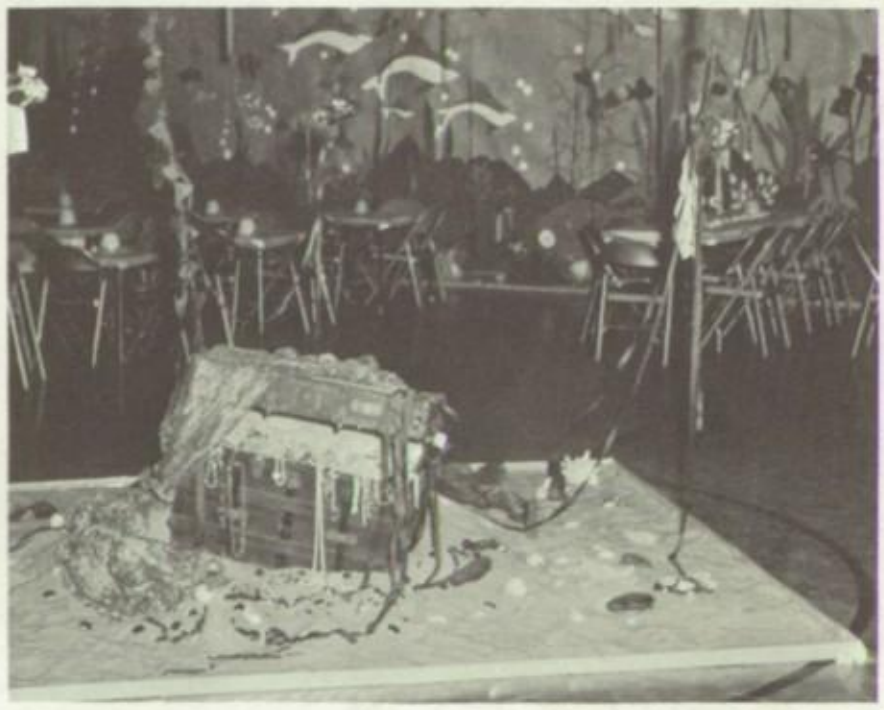
The big night was climaxed by breakfasts at various students' homes.



Queen Barbara and King John led the first dance following the coronation.

Prom Royalty: S. Rapp-Princess; J. Cross-King; B. Isaksson-Queen; and T. Knisely-Prince. Crown bearers: G. Perkins and R. Warner.

The treasure chest, located in the center of the floor, held charms for the prom.



C. Newell smiled with satisfaction and pride as the audience gave him a standing ovation.

Sophomore Placed First in State Scholarship Test

Awards Day was held May 23, with Mr. Gloss as Master of Ceremonies. He introduced Mr. Mansfield of the Christian Church in Columbiana who gave a short talk to the assembly. He was immediately followed by those appointed to distribute the awards.

Constance Lodge was the recipeint of the Jacob Koch Scholarship award of $1,000 (to be used over a 2-year period). This award was given by the New Waterford Bank and was presented by Mr. Charles Koch.

This was the second year a Columbiana student received this honor.

Clifford Newell received a standing ovation upon receiving certificates for placing first in the state, disregarding classification, in earth science as a result of competing in the district-state scholarship testing program. Clifford was the first student from Columbiana to win first place in the state in the scholarship tests. Congratulations Cliff!

With a mixture of surprise and elation, C. Lodge received the Koch Award.

Legion Honored the "Top Ten" of 1967

On April 26, 1967, the American Legion Benjamin Post 290 honored the "Top Ten" seniors of the class of 1967 at a banquet at South Side School. These students were selected on the basis of their accumulated grade average through four years of high school.

After a delicious meal, which was served by the American Legion Auxiliary, the program began with introductory words from high school Principal, Gayl Gloss. Alan Wilkoff then presented the main speaker of the evening, Rabbi Sidney Berkowitz, of Rodef Sholem Temple in Youngstown. The Rabbi's topic was concerned with the fact that life is not always the way it may appear.

The program was concluded by Superintendent D. W. Bailey when he presented certificates of achievement to all students maintaining a B average or better. He also gave special recognition to the "Top Ten" seniors.

Surprise! A new kind of briefcase for these three "Top Ten" Seniors: R. Lower, B. White, and R. Exten.

Clipper Tripper Vaudeville

Each act of the Clipper Tripper Vaudeville was preceded with its announcement by S. Hudson.

The year of 1966-67, one of many changes, gave way to a revolution in entertainment. One of the two performances heading the list was the Variety Show.

The setting was vaudeville, but the show really rolled as Call Girl, Suzanne Hudson, introduced each act along with Master of Ceremonies, John Morlan.

In a last effort to make money for the trip to New York, the acts were comprised mostly of seniors, but other varied acts were presented by young and old alike.

Musical talent was at its peak in the show as a honky-tonk band played those "oldies." Two senior boys livened the show with a few well-known jazz numbers and the mellow and moving "Summertime." "Mary, Mary" presented a humorous musical dressed as she was in outlandish costume. A girls' choral group sang the hits of today--"Born Free," and "See You in September."

Along with the honky tonk band of the older generation, the "Sacred Senior Six" played as a Salvation Army band on their incoming march. Surprisingly enough, though, the rest of their numbers included those like "Winchester Cathedral," "Spanish Flea," and other sounds of brass.

The little ballerinas who danced to "Scarlet Ribbons," couldn't have looked sweeter in their lovely gowns. Later, one of the girls tap danced and sang "Dark Town Strutters Ball."

Candy made by the Clipper Trippers was sold before showtime and at intermission.

As the Variety Show was the last production of the seniors, they could not help but feel that they had saved "the best for last."

J. Brittain and R. Noble made several attempts to sing "Indian Love Call" but were booed off the stage every time.

The Sacred Senior Six composed of T. Knisely, T. Russell, B. Hoffman, R. Exten, and P. Morris surprised everyone as they marched down the hall around the auditorium and finally on to the stage! Who was the sixth member of the "Sacred Six"?--Janie Little.

Class Day -- A Moment of Truth?

Juniors Greg Young and Kathie Cullen led the 114 senior class members into the gymnasium for the annual Class Day presentations on May 25. John Cross welcomed the audience and introduced the various participants of the program. Paul Daniels and Lynn Carr distributed the class gifts.

Bob Noble and Brenda White added to the program with Bob singing "Impossible Dream," and Brenda, "I Believe." The Senior Girls' Double Trio sang "Born Free" and the senior band members gave their rendition of Herb Alpert's popular song "Spanish Flea."

The class will was presented by Marcia Grant, Dave Weber, and Mike Detwiler; and Debbie Ruhl announced the class favorites. Foretelling the future, Karen Frank and Nancy Hum introduced the class prophecy.

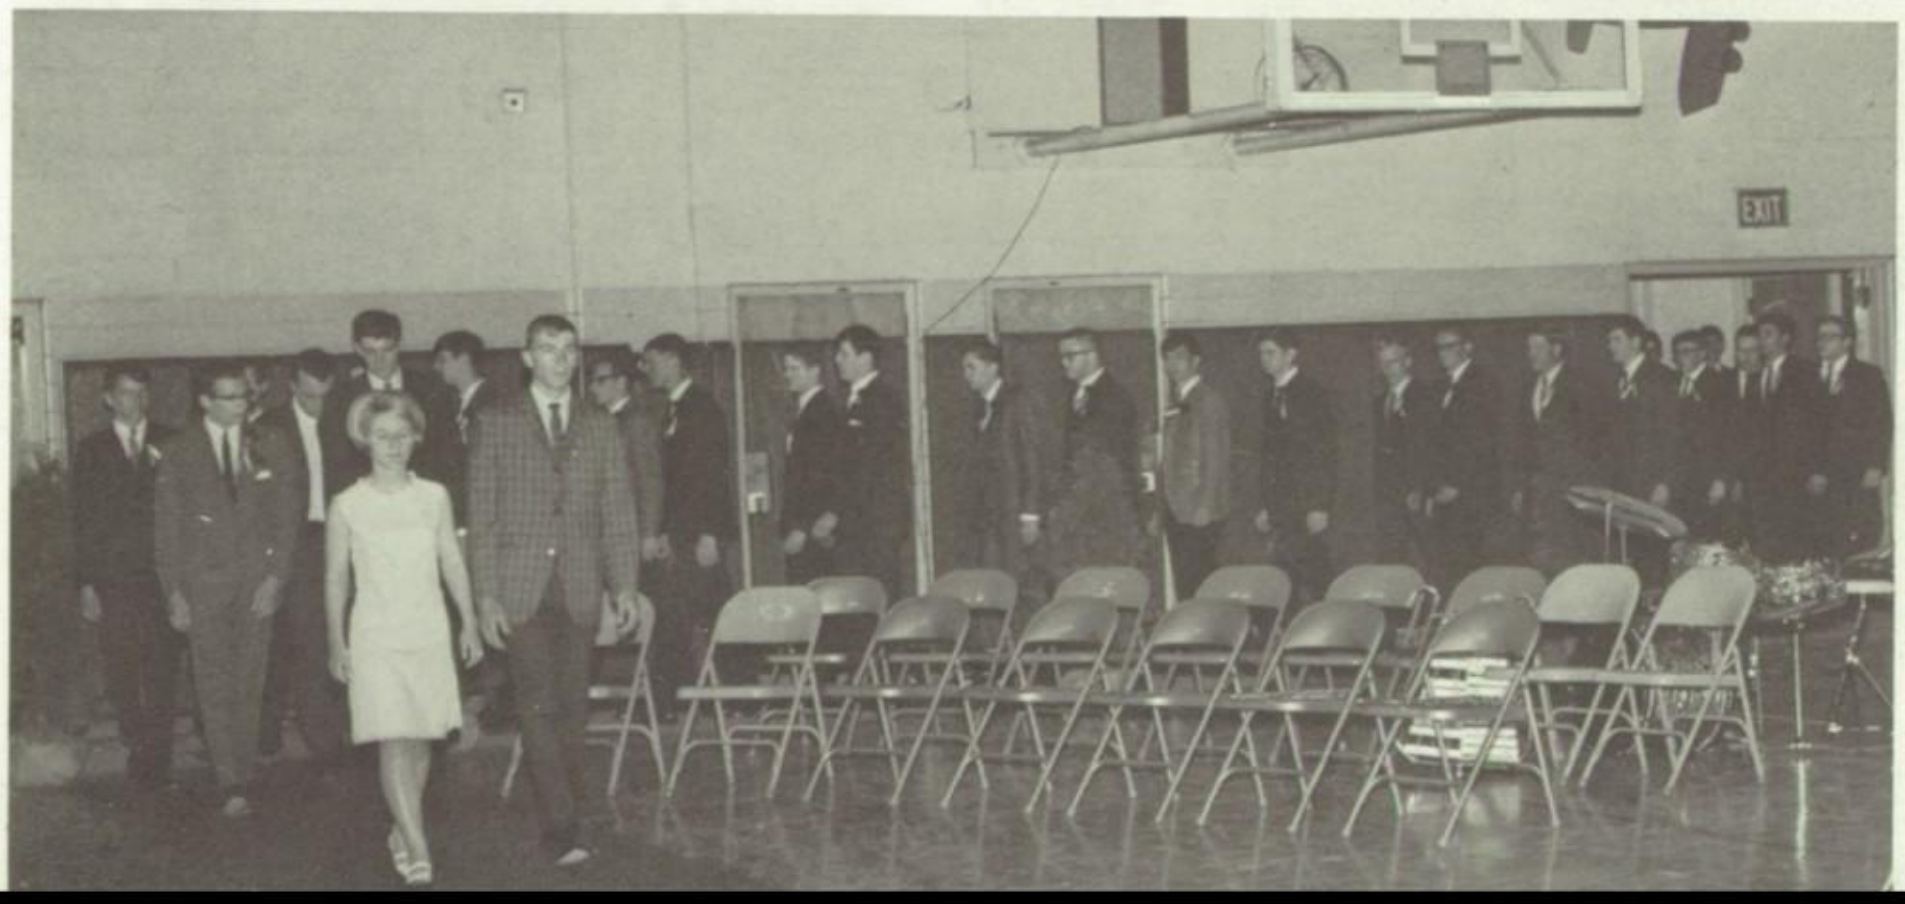
Jim Baker and Mike Detwiler combined their talents on the organ and drums to entertain the audience with "The Stripper" among other songs.

Giving it a good try, the class sang the class song, which was followed by the recessional.

Since there was no freshman initiation, J. Baker and M. Detwiler created their own fun during class day.

P. Daniels presented J. Cross with his gift--pom-poms.

Juniors K. Cullen and G. Young led the seniors into the gymnasium for class day.



Baccalaureate --

A Moment to Think and Choose

May 29, 1967 was the evening of the 1967 baccalaureate service. Reverend Thiedt gave the invocation, prayers, and scripture reading. Reverend Owen Shankster was the minister who preached the sermon, "Choose You This Day." In it he told of the dangers of drugs, sex, and life in general. He told the audience that teenagers were not a lost generation as the papers often say. He cited several instances in which teenagers had done good and come out on top. He told the seniors not to be afraid to accept responsibility, and to get ahead on their own without being held back or rewarded by the acts of their parents.

The audience and class joined together to sing "America, The Beautiful" and "Rise Up, O Men of God."

Reverend Thiedt gave the benediction and the 1967 graduation class left solemnly pondering the wise words of Reverend Shangster.

"Alleluia". It's almost over!

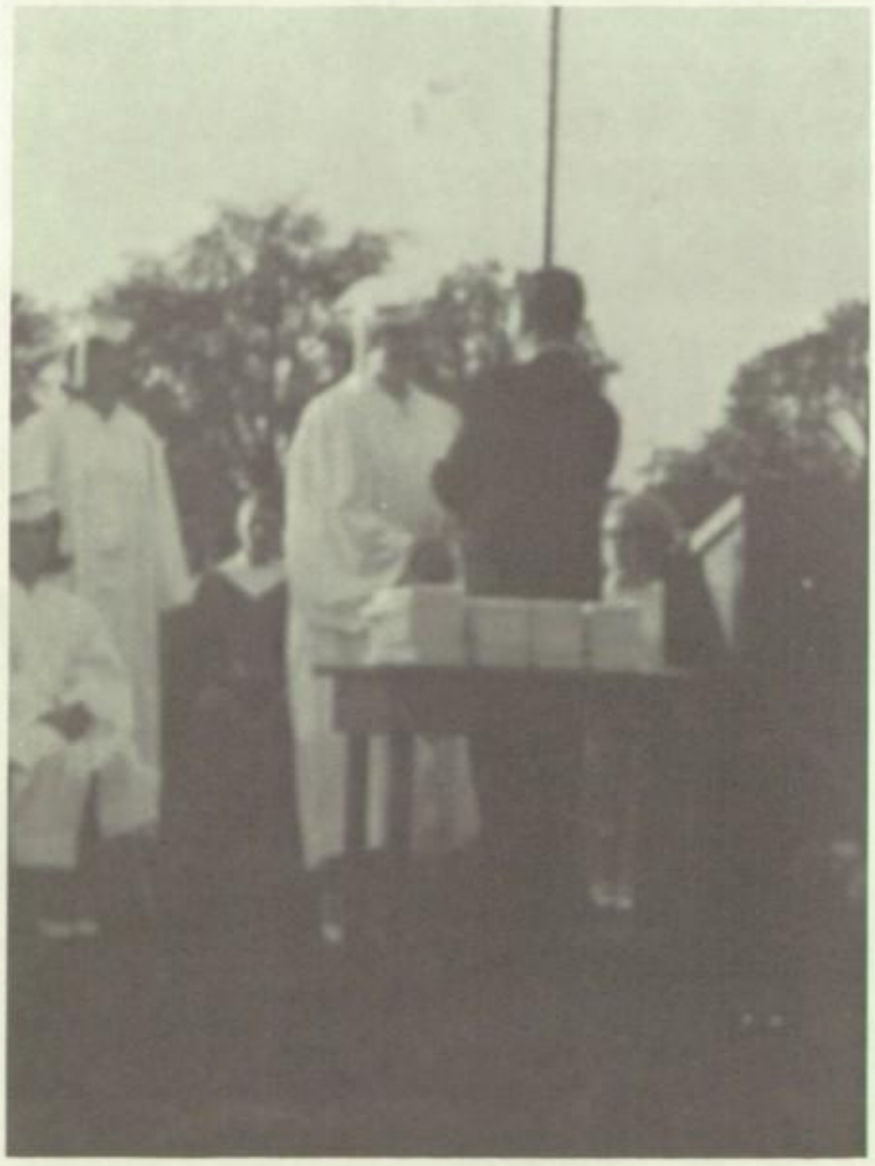
The Class of 1967 listened to the Baccalaureate speaker.

"My country 'tis of thee, . . ."

Mr. Theidt gave the invocation.

The End of a Wonderful and Rewarding Experience but the Beginning of a Greater

With tears in their eyes, the Seniors filed into their places for the last time as Seniors.



While giving J. French her diploma, Mr. Powers congratulated her.

Columbiana High School held its eighty-sixth annual commencement at the Firestone Park Stadium on Thursday evening, June first at seven o'clock. The senior class of 1967 entered when the band began playing the processional "Pomp and Circumstance"; and after the invocation given by Reverend James E. Davis of the First Baptist Church, Mr. D. W. Bailey, Superintendent of Schools, made several remarks on the senior class and its high school record.

Following another selection by the high school band, the four top seniors gave their student addresses on the theme "The Song and Dance Generation Speaks". Constance L. Perrin spoke on "The Pleasures of Song and Dance"; Constance G. Lodge gave her address on "The Need for Individualism". Beverly A. Holloway talked about "The Dangers of Freedom", and Robert E. Exten concluded with "The Importance of Character."

After two selections by the high school chorus and the presentation of the seniors by the High School Principal Mr. Gayl Gloss, the President of the Board of Education Mr. Robert Powers, awarded the seniors their diplomas. The band and chorus gave another selection; and following the benediction, the seniors made their last exit to the recessional, "March From the Consecration of the House."

After the band played a few bars of "Spanish Flea", C. Perrin began her speech.

The End.

Clippers Finished Second in Tri-County League

In the most successful season ever under Coach Ray Bellisari, the Clipper football team finished second in Tri-County League play for the second year in a row with a record of six wins against one defeat. The lone defeat came at the hands of league champion, Louisville. Although the Clippers put up a valiant effort against the state-ranked Leopards, they were defeated 12-0. Coach Bellisari twice was honored with the "Coach of the Week" award from WKBN radio and television for the team's efforts in the Louisville game and also for a 7-6 win over Minerva. But the most satisfying victory of all had to be the 46-6 win over Leetonia in the homecoming tilt. A loss to the Bears in any sport would make the entire season a failure.

Many of the Clippers were named to local All-Star teams. On the Tri-County team, Dave Weber was selected to the first team; while John Newell, Randy Bolsinger, and Bill Ward made the second team; Al Ridel and Rick Detwiler received honorable mention. On the first team of the County All-Stars were Randy Bolsinger and Bill Ward on the offensive team; on defense: Dave Weber and Al Ridel; and John Morlan and John Cope received honorable mention. Bill Ward and Randy Bolsinger were also named to the All Northeast Ohio team, each receiving honorable mention.

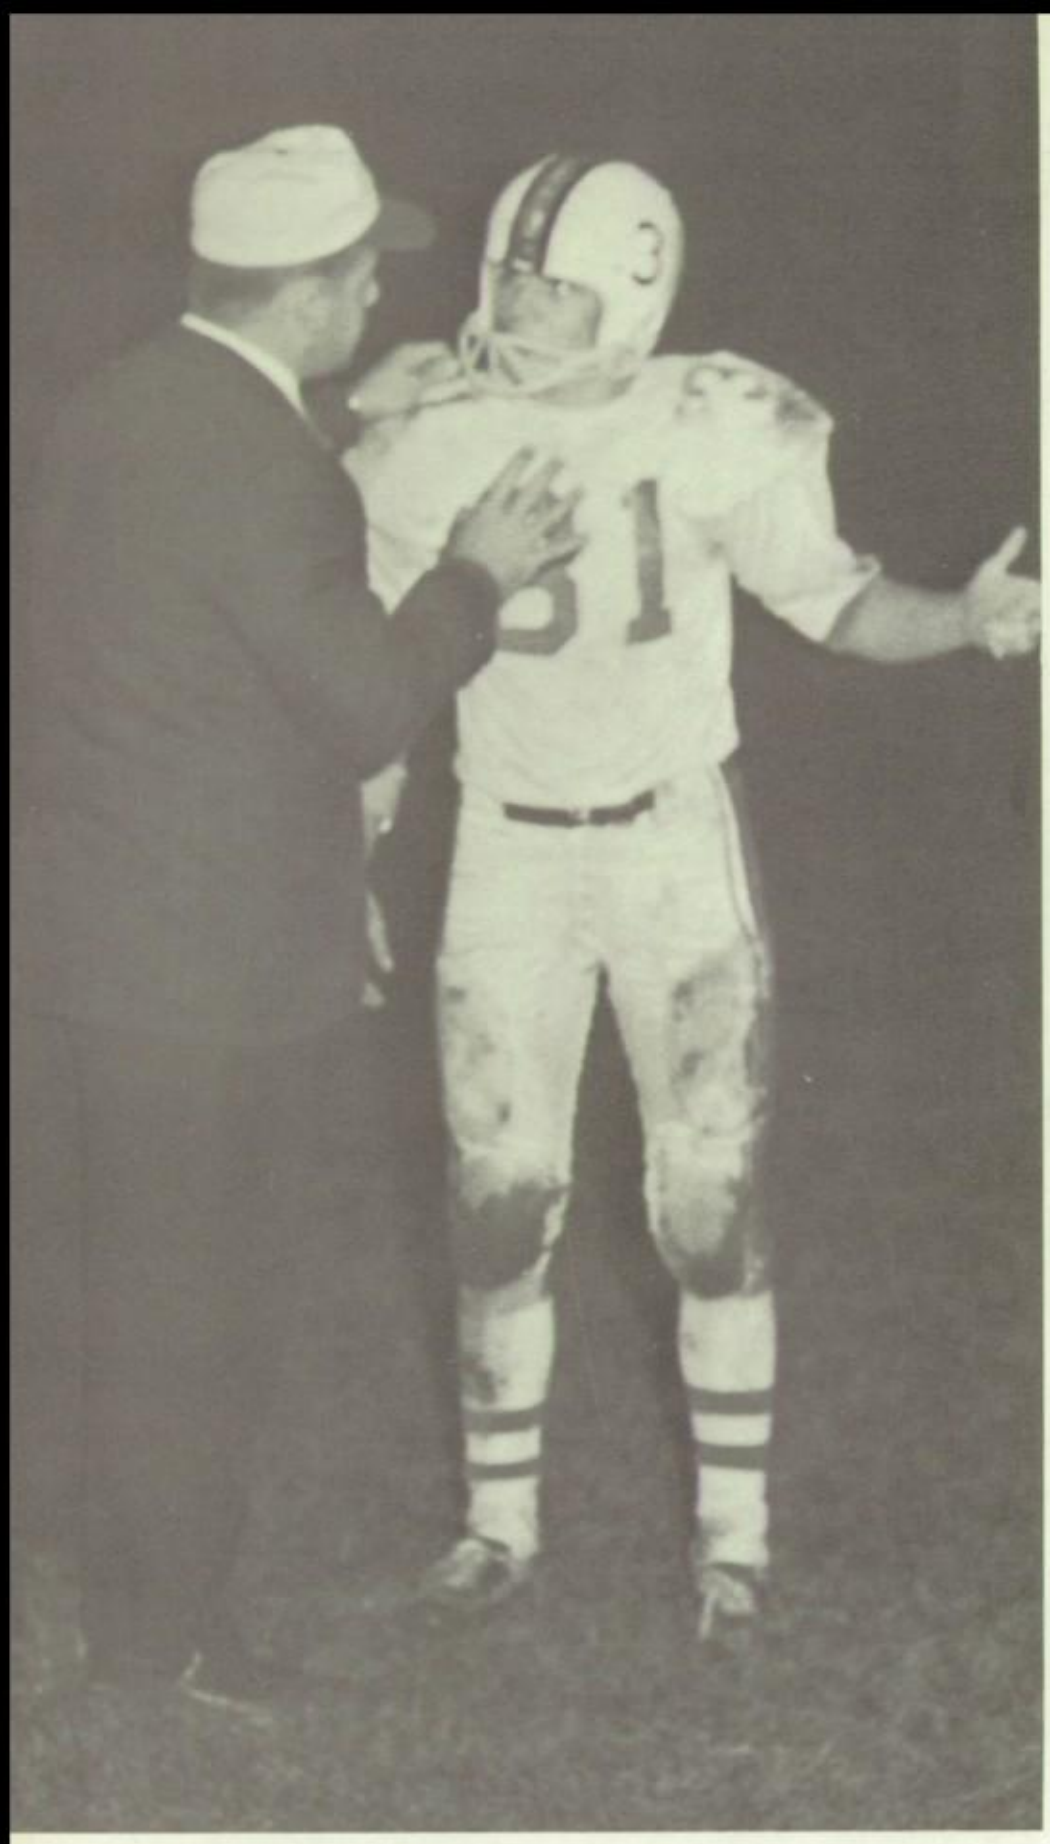
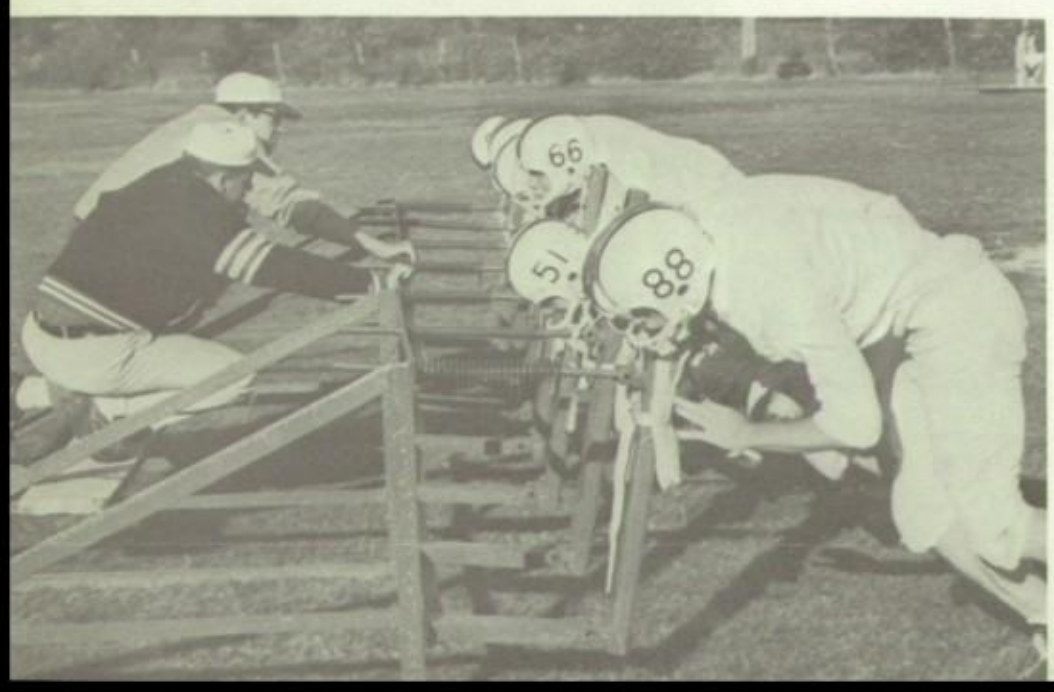
GARY GREGG -- a sophomore, won his first letter as defensive halfback. He also held for the kicker. Gary led the team in pass interceptions, although he was a regular for only the second half of the season, as he picked off four and returned them for a total of 64 yards.

BOB HUM -- winning his first letter, was the team's place kicker. He connected on 13 of 18 extra point attempts. His placements were the margin of victory in wins over East Palestine and Minerva.



Coach Bellisari gave A. Ridel (31) an important play to stop the advancing East Palestine Bulldogs.

Set! Hit! Tough offensive linemen pushed the seven-man sled all during football season and it paid off by opening many holes for the backs.



Practice! Drill! Game!

Practice is hard work--and lots of it! From the time the summer practice sessions began in August until the last game with East Palestine in November, the players spent many hours on the practice field. In the summer sessions before the school year had started, the players were on the field from 8:15 until 5:00. During this time the players attended two-hour practice sessions in the morning and in the afternoon. Also, one-hour classroom discussions were held to teach the players the fine points of their positions, the rules of the game, the technicalities of teamwork, and the offensive and defensive formations which would be used throughout the year. The Booster Club supplied lunches for the team during summer practice.

In order to put themselves in the best physical shape possible, the players each participated in "and then some" sessions which involved isometric exercises and weightlifting.

During the season, Mondays were days to eliminate the "aches and pains" which the players had received from the previous game. The coaches also went over the scouting report and made game plans. Tuesdays and Wednesdays were the hardest physical work days. The offense and defense were made ready for the next battle. On Thursdays, final game plans were made, and the team went through the "kicking game". The Varsity game was usually played on Friday and the Reserve on Saturday.

W. Ward (44) ran interference for A. Ridel (31) and blocked out standup dummy held by J. Morlan (22) as A. Ridel (31) ran low and hard by standup dummy held by D. Morris (35).

The Clippers short gain ground play 31 wedge pushed back the Canfield defenders as A. Ridel (31), W. Ward (44) and G. Lynn (66) executed their part in the play. Clippers pictured: W. Davis (63), J. Scott (88), Captain R. Bolsinger (51), W. Cyrus (78), R. DeAtley (75), and J. Newell (81).

Captain R. Bolsinger (51) and two unidentifiable Clippers viciously tackled Canfield ball carrier. G. Lynn (66) and W. Cyrus prepared to come in for assists.

Homecoming Court Received Reign Check

Originally scheduled for the September 30, Minerva game, the 1966 Football Homecoming ceremony was called off because of the rainy weather. Homecoming was moved up to the October 14 game to be played with Leetonia. Fortunately there was clear weather and the ceremony went on as planned.

With the Clipper band playing "The Sweetheart of Sigma Chi," the court made their entrance. Queen Barbara Isaksson, was escorted by John Cross, Senior class president. Sherry Rapp and Linda Antram attendants to the queen, were escorted by John Liston and Dave Whan.

The girls' fathers accompanied them on to the field. Barb was crowned by football captain, Randy Bolsinger. Rick Detwiler, co-captain for the week, instated Sherry and Linda.

It was a victorious evening for the Clippers. The court watched as Columbiana defeated Leetonia 46 to 6.

After the game, a dance at Joshua Dixon school honored the queen and her attendants.

The 1966 Football Homecoming proved to be successful despite the postponement because of bad weather.

Game Lost, but Beauty Ruled

On Saturday, January 27, Columbiana, was host to Louisville for its 1966-1967 Basketball Homecoming.

The ceremony took place at the half-time between the reserve and varsity games. While the band played "The Sweetheart of Sigma Chi", Kathie McNab was escorted by Al Ridel to the middle of the court and was there crowned the 1966-1967 Basketball Homecoming Queen by co-captain John Cope.

Christine Goist, escorted by David George, and Donna Cole, escorted by Mike Detwiler, were then crowned the 1966-1967 Basketball Homecoming Attendants by co-captain John Cross.

After the crowning and the applauded - for kisses, Kathie welcomed Louisville and Columbiana to the Homecoming and thanked the student body for electing her the Homecoming Queen and making her dream come true.

Then Kathie, Chris, and Donna were escorted to their seats, where they watched the Clippers strive to a near victory score of 47-45, and enjoyed an evening they will never forget.

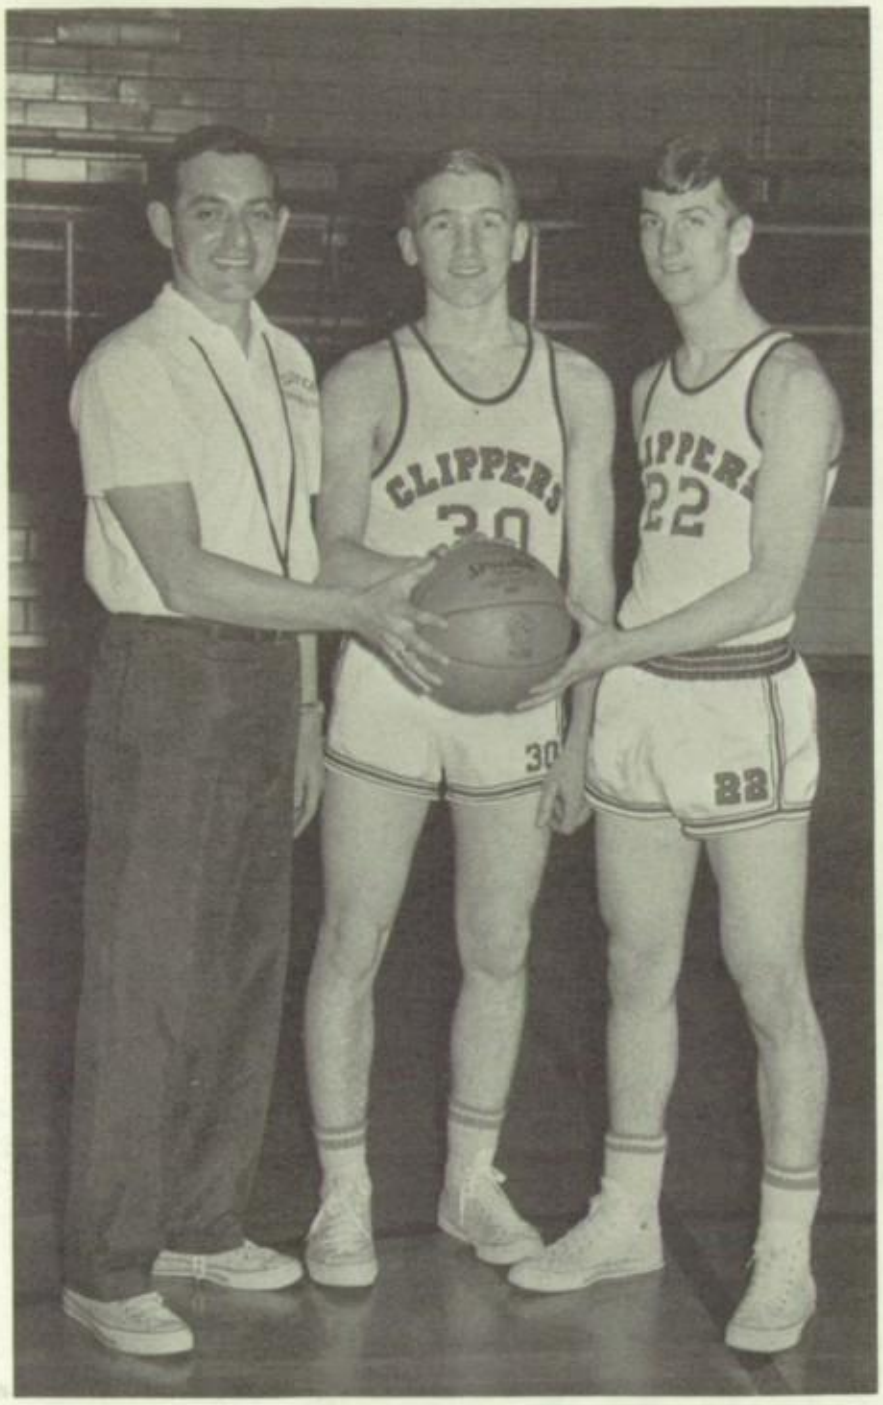
Clippers Beat Rival Leetonia Twice



Mr. Berryman, (Co-captains)--J. Cross, J. Cope.

The 1966-67 basketball season is over now, but it produced many memories that will never end. After losing their first three games, the Clippers came on to win six contests before the end of the season. Although the team did not do nearly as well as they had hoped, there were many bright spots throughout the season for the Clippers. To defeat Leetonia twice in one year, one defeat being a good tramping of the Bears on their home court, is a feather in the hat for the Clippers. The terrific rally that brought the Clippers from eighteen points down to a victory at Lisbon gave the Clipper fans a real treat. The 60-44 victory over United Local gave the Golden Eagles a jolt and gave the Clippers a much needed boost. The homecoming battle with Louisville was a hard fought, well played game for Columbiana, even though we lost in the waning seconds. Another good feature about the season was that all of the undergraduates on the varsity squad gained valuable experience for future Clipper teams by seeing plenty of action in the heat of a game.

At the start of the season the team set three goals at which to aim. These were to have a winning season, to win the Tri-County Championship, and to go as far as possible in the state tournaments. Although these goals were not reached, they presented a task for the Clippers which was to do their very best while striving for those goals. This task was present even after all hopes of a league championship were gone, because the state tournament gave the Clippers a goal down to the final game.

It is true that the 1966-67 basketball season was not as successful as hoped, but the Clippers always showed hustle and determination. For this the student body is proud of them and rightly so.

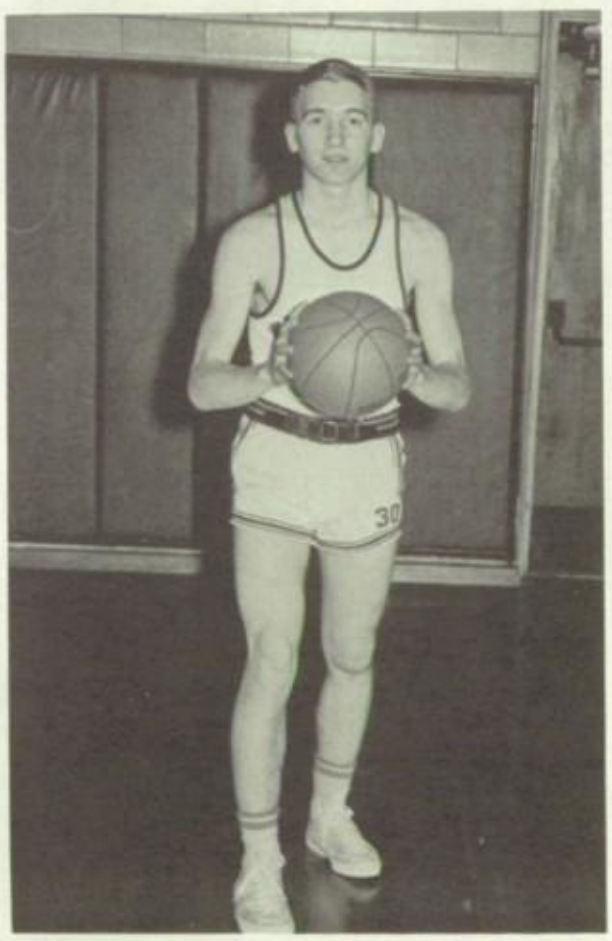
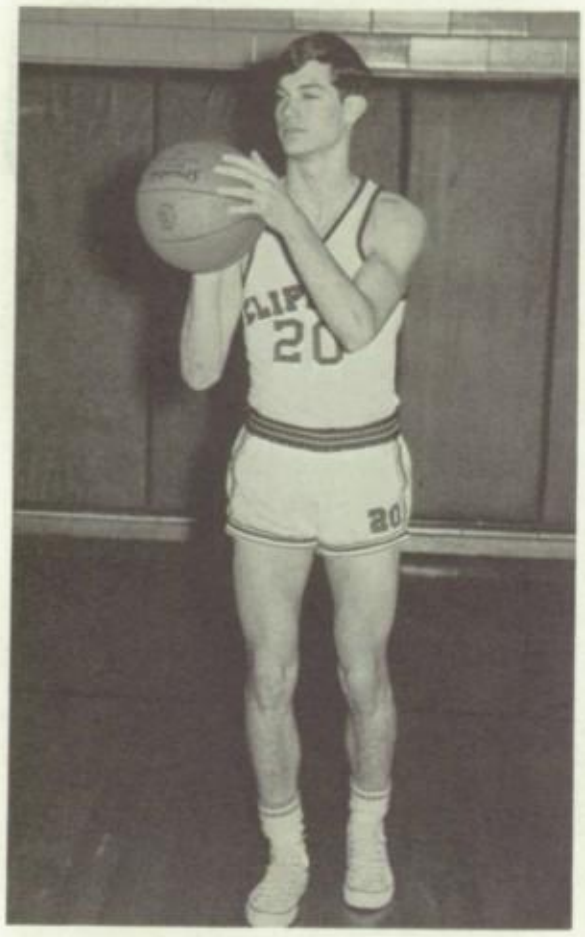
The mighty Clippers tried to capture the loose ball.

The familiar scene during time out is depicted by the Varsity team huddle.



John Cross-A senior earning his second letter, John was also a Co-Captain. He was the team playmaker from his position at guard; as he had the most assists, with 32. John hit on 34 of 55 from the foul line for 62%, which was second on the team.

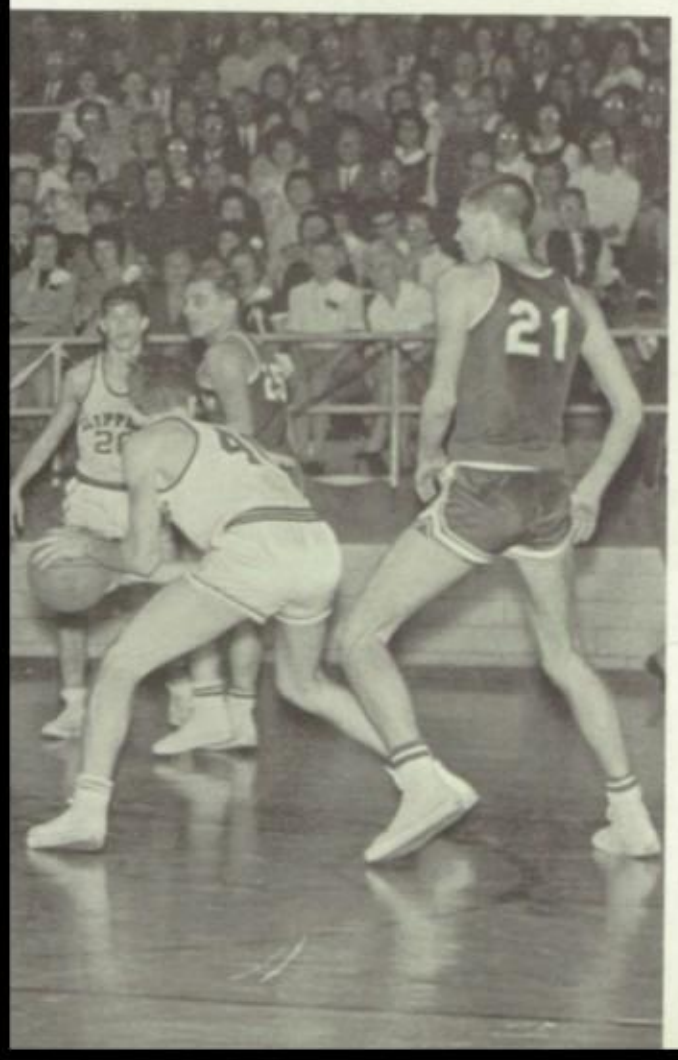
Honorable Mention, All Tri-County

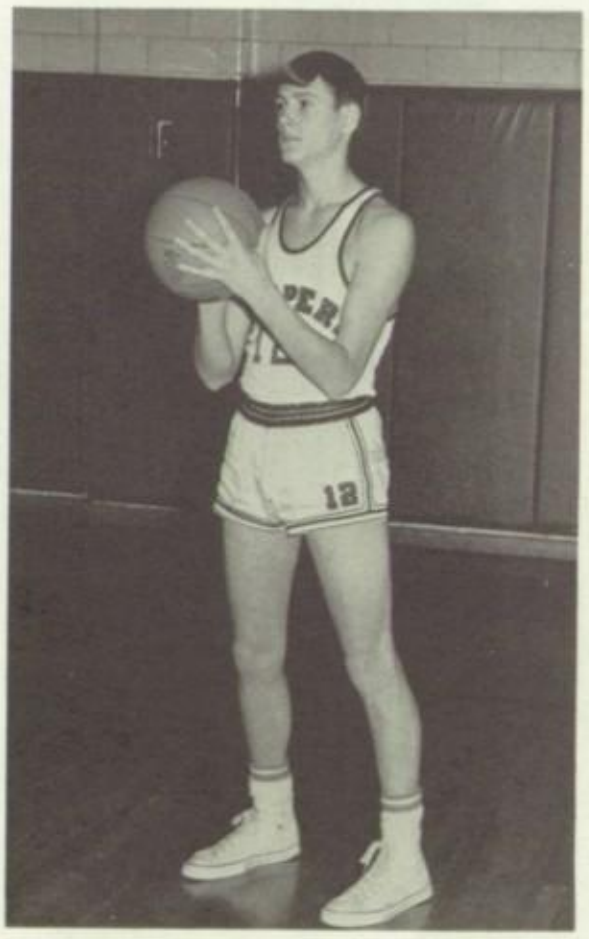


Rick Detwiler--Rick earned his second letter as a forward in his senior year; and was selected to honorable mention, All Tri-County. He was the team's best foul shooter as he made 34 of 51 for 67%. Rick's 154 total points included fifteen against both Leetonia and Lisbon.

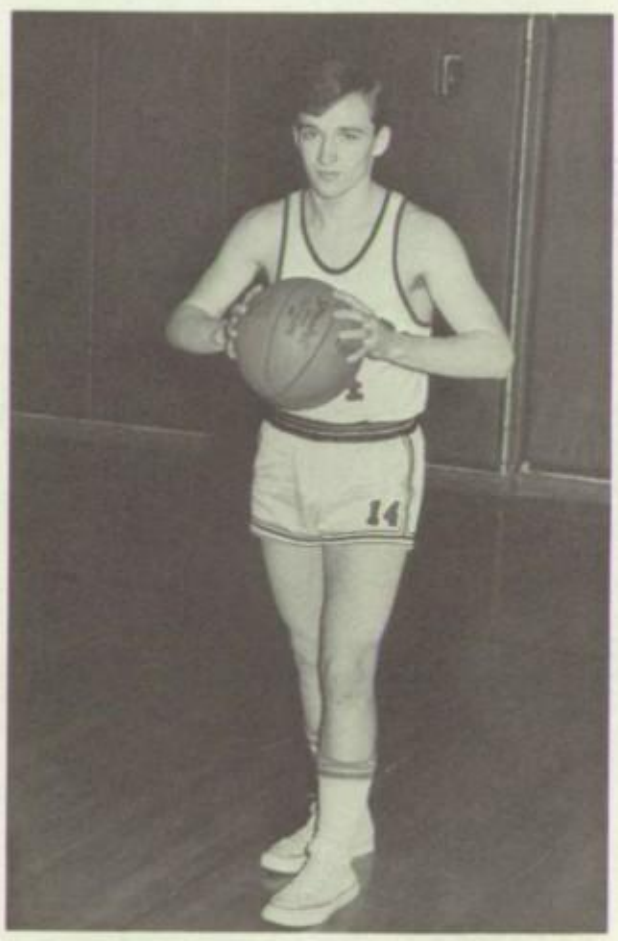
G. Vestfals stretched to hit the jump ball to his teammate.

Junior center G. Vestfals looked for an opening to get the ball to teammate R. Detwiler.





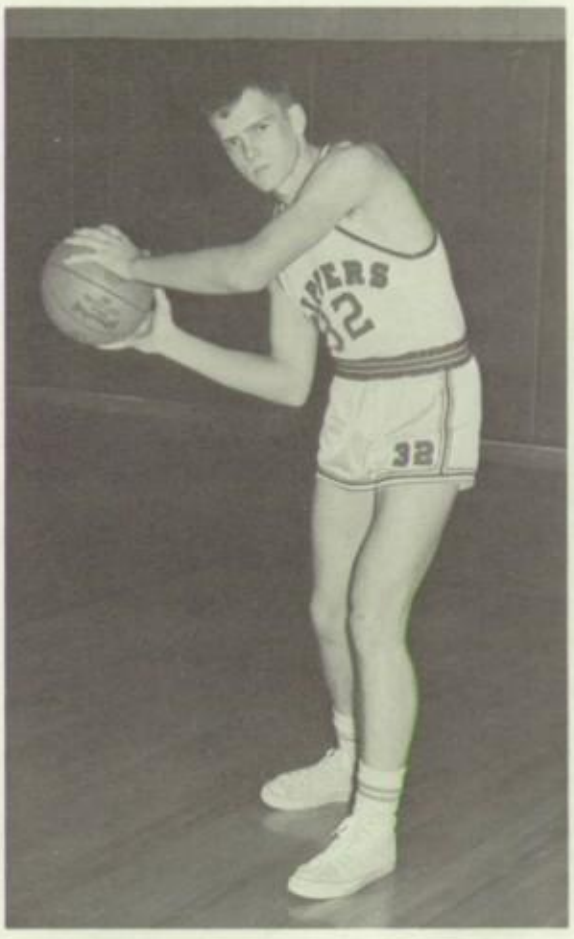
Steve Gayon--A senior, Steve won his first varsity letter as a guard. He was second on the team in field goal percentage with 36 of 101 for 36%. Steve's twenty points against United led the Clippers to their first victory of the season over the previously undefeated Eagles.



Larry Parks--"Tiny" earned his first varsity letter as a guard in his senior year. A good passer and playmaker, he gave the Clippers good bench strength as a front line substitute.

Three Varsity Lettering Juniors Aided C.H.S. Team

D. J. Gaughn--A junior forward earning his first letter, D. J. didn't break into the lineup until mid-season. But he still managed to lead the team in field goal percentage as he sunk 52 of 134 for 39%.

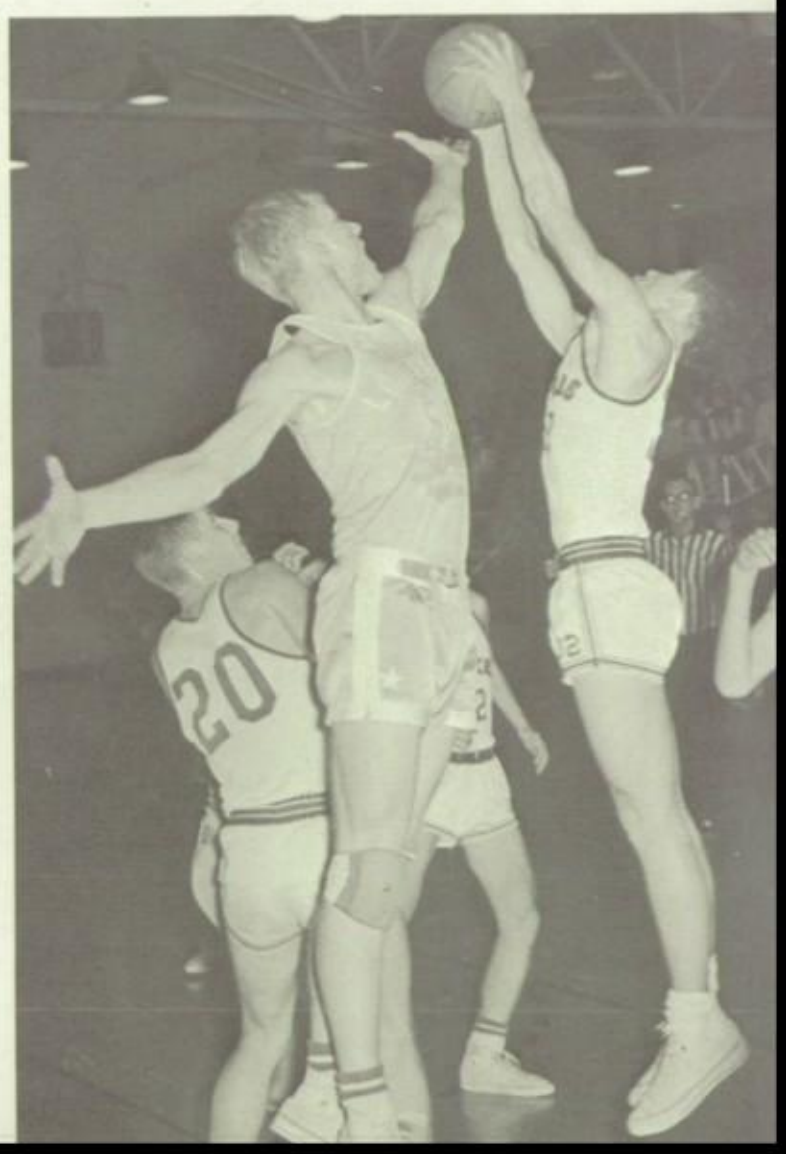


Bill Gela--A junior, Bill earned his first varsity letter as a substitute. A steady player and rugged rebounder, he helped the team through many rough games.

George Vestfals--George won his first varsity letter as a center in his junior year. He was second in scoring with 163 points and 8.6 average. George was also second in rebounds with 105, including 16 against West Branch.

D. Oliver reached high in the air to pull the ball away from a Louisville Reserve player.

All eyes were on the ball as J. Cross attempted a foul shot against East Palestine.



G. Gregg pulled down a rebound in the Reserve game with Louisville.

Freshmen Came in Second in Tournament Action

An improved Clipper Freshman basketball team, coached by Ray Bellisari, finished second in the Frosh tourney held at Leetonia. Although as eighth graders they hadn't won a game, hard work and good discipline gave the team seven wins against ten losses over the entire season. Their fine spirit and good play will provide a good nucleus for the Reserve team in 67-68, and for future Varsity teams.

Cheerleaders Sparked Pep in Student Body

The Varsity Cheerleaders, advised by Mrs. Margaret Ferrall, began the new season by spending a week at Valley Vista Cheerleading camp in Cambridge, Ohio, where they learned new cheers. Then during the year, besides cheering at the football and basketball games, they sold sweat-shirts, T-shirts, ribbons, and corsages for the homecoming games. Along with the Pep Club, they decorated for the homecomings and made victory signs for the games. They planned the pep rallies and put on skits before the student body. The cheerleaders did a good job of cheering for the boys all season.

Backing up the Varsity cheerleaders were the Reserves, who also did a fine job of cheering. They were a great help to the Varsity in all of the projects.

On September 6, the class of '68 returned to the halls of C.H.S. as juniors. An election of class officers was held late in the sophomore year to determine who would lead the class through the important junior year. Greg Young was chosen class president, and on the same day, his freshman brother, Mark, was elected president of his class.

When it came time to order class rings, it was debatable whether to have the round or square ones. The round ones were finally chosen after voting on them twice. The ring committee was headed by Greg Young, who was assisted by Nancy Reash, Betsy Brown, Gary Tharp, George Vestfals, and Elizabeth Crawford.

The money making project for the prom--the refreshment stand--was successful.

The class play, "I Remember Mama" under the direction of Mr. James Dapollonia and student director, Pamela Lipe on November 17 & 18 was a "hit".

Highlighting the year was the junior-senior prom on April 14, organized by the social chairmen--Rick Noel and Gayle Warner, and directed by Mrs. Patricia Talbot. The juniors climaxed their year by sponsoring the junior-senior luncheon.

Class of '69 Sold Record Books

The class of '69 led by their able president, Bruce Bieshelt, started the long process of making money by selling school record books. These books were sold quickly to parents with children in school to keep a record of all papers, grades, and activities which the child has participated in through school. The members of the class, also, collected gold tapes to turn in for money. Bake sales and jitney sales were other profitable means of making money. The class worked hard to raise all the funds possible so that they would not have to work so hard their junior year to meet the expenses for decorations, orchestra, and refreshments for the prom. The class of '69 also worked on choosing class colors and a class motto.

Sophomores Cheered Reserves on to Victory

The sophomore class, headed by cheerleaders Donna Snodgrass, Gayle Pancake, Anna Dunbar, and Lynn Daniels cheered for the sophomore reserve football team at all their games. The fifteen sophomore reserve football players practiced every night for two hours to better themselves. This practice paid off very well; they had an undefeated season.

The eleven sophomore boys on the reserve basketball team were also supported by their class. They, too, practiced every night after school for several hours to improve their game. They had a winning season with a 13-5 record.

Both the basketball and football reserves will be varsity players in their future years at C.H.S. and the class of '69 will continue cheering their team to many victories.

Spirits Were High for the Class of '70

CLASS OFFICERS: M. Young - President; N. Long - Vice-President; P. Price - Treasurer; and P. Perrin - Secretary.

When the big year finally arrived, the Frosh entered their first and hectic year of high school life. Mark Young headed the procession as the Class of '70 shouted and ran through the halls in mad confusion--and fun.

Like so many freshmen in years gone by, high school seemed a strange and exciting adventure. Some disappointment was felt when initiation was canceled, but the dampened spirits of '70 soon rose to a glorious high as thoughts of assemblies, clubs, pep rallies, and good times loomed before them.

What does high school really mean to the freshmen? Many feel their first year of high school is the foundation for education. To those planning on attending college, all four years of high school form that foundation.

In the spring of 1966, the 115 members of the senior class elected John Cross to serve his second consecutive year as president of the class of '67. He, along with the other class officers, was responsible for the activities of the 1967 graduating class.

All worked diligently under John's able leadership to promote money-making projects in order to add to the class treasury and assist in the payment of caps and gowns. The profits from two jitney sales and a pizza sale went toward these goals.

The seniors were the honored guests of the junior class at two of the annual spring festivities -- the Junior-Senior luncheon and the Junior-Senior Prom.

The class further highlighted the year with their dramatic interpretation of Wilder's OUR TOWN on April 7 and 8.

Baccalaureate then followed on May 28 and graduation, June 1.

"Clipper Trippers" a Success

The "Clipper Trippers" is an extra curricular activity organized through the efforts of senior students and their parents to help the students raise the necessary funds for the trip to New York City after graduation in June. The trip has become one of the highlights of the senior year since it was begun in 1959.

The officers for the 1967 "Clipper Trippers" were: Terry Knisely, president; Jeff Maurer, vice-president; Connie Perrin, secretary; Robert Exten, treasurer; and Karen Frank, student chairman. The adult chairman for the "Clipper Trippers" was Mrs. Charles Porter who assisted and advised the officers.

To raise the required funds, "Clipper Trippers" engaged in many activities. Gold tapes from Theron's Country Store were saved and redeemed for four years as their first project. As seniors, the "Clipper Trippers" raffled a 19-inch portable television set, an AM-FM radio, and a box of Valentine candy. During the Christmas season the "Clipper Trippers" held a Christmas tree sale on Main Street. The group also held a Variety show on May 20, which proved to be a masterpiece of talent and ingenuity. For another money-making project, the "Clipper Trippers" made a door-to-door campaign selling light bulbs.

Finally, in June, after much hard work and preparation, the "Clipper Trippers" traveled to New York by train for their four-day stay. While there, the group enjoyed sight-seeing trips to the Empire State Building, Radio City Music Hall, Chinatown, Greenwich Village, Harlem, Central Park, and Fifth Avenue. With so much that they had to look forward to, it was no wonder that their activities were such a success.

Ruperto David Borboa Simental came to C.H.S. from Las Mochias, Mexico, on the Rotary Exchange Program to learn English and observe American customs. Although he was constantly being teased, David said he enjoyed his stay here very much.

His favorite subjects at C.H.S. included mechanical drawing and mathematics, both of which will help him in his study of engineering at the University of Mexico. His stay here has been a meaningful experience for him, as well as a representation of the current exchange program being conducted among the nations of this hemisphere.

"Liz" Wenner, an exchange student from Basel, Switzerland, became a member of the senior class of C.H.S. in the fall of 1966. While in Columbiana, she lived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Ballantine and was sponsored by the Lutheran Church as part of the ICYE program (International Christian Youth Exchange). A very talented girl, "Liz" spoke Swiss, German, French, Italian, and English; she also played the cello and the guitar.

Class of '67's History

The year was 1963. The Graduation Class of 1967 entered C.H.S. as freshmen led by Beverly Holloway. After suffering through freshman initiation, we collected our wits and settled down to the ordeal of becoming sophomores.

When we entered C.H.S. in 1964, we thought we were pretty great, since there was a class beneath us to push around. However, the juniors and seniors soon changed our minds. Terry Knisely, sophomore president, made us get busy and start making money for the next year's prom expenses.

In 1965 we ordered and received our class rings in time to show them off over Christmas vacation. Our junior class president was John Cross, who organized jitney sales, bake sales, and refreshment stands at the basketball and football games. As a result of this work, we ended up only $37.50 in the hole after all expenses were paid. Our prom, "Jungle Paradise" and the junior-senior luncheon were both great successes.

At last our senior year came around. We knew it would be hard work, with all the subject requirements to meet, and we had long faces when we entered C.H.S. that first day. When we went to English class, we brightened considerably--no research papers. With this surprise to encourage us, we endeavored to complete our last year at C.H.S. We elected John Cross as president again. An enjoyable evening was spent as guests of the junior class at the prom and again in the afternoon for the junior-senior luncheon. John did a wonderful job helping us get through class day, baccalaureate, and commencement with a minimum of problems.

Eighth Graders Assumed Position of Experience

During their second year in the high school, the eighth-graders found it much easier to get into the routine of new classes and teachers. They soon assumed a position of experience over their younger seventh-grade school mates. They chose cheerleaders and elected class officers and a student council representative. Their football team had their first games against other schools as a part of the freshman team. They had their own basketball team, and ended their season with a good percentage of games won. The eighth-graders' year as leaders over the junior high was one they will remember.

Seventh Graders Became Accustomed to the Rush

The seventh graders, changing classes for the first time, soon became accustomed to the rush between classes and to lunch. Their football season consisted of practice sessions while their basketball team played several times between halves of the Varsity games. They picked their officers and a representative to Student Council. Several of their class volunteered to help the seniors with the annual and their work was greatly appreciated. Their first year in the high school building was really one not to be forgotten.

"There is many a battle that's yet to be won,
There is many a glorious deed to be done.

We're Proud of You!

You've made a wonderful mark on our world with your youth, your vitality, your hard work, too. And thank you . . . for making us see new ways of looking at life, a laugh or two at ourselves, and well . . . Just for being YOU . . . Young, happy, and ready.

There's a whole world waiting to hear from you again . . . So make the very best of all that you are, and all that you want to be. Believe in that dream, and work for it . . . You are the only one who can make it real, you know . . . Because you have that very special something . . . Your individuality. Please never lose that!

It's hats off to you, graduate! You've done much to be proud of and there's much more that can be done . . . We believe you can do it. We believe in YOU!

The Annual Staff wishes to extend their sincere thanks to the advertisers and contributors for their support in making the 1967 "Clipper" possible.

The summer of 1966, we the co-editors of the 1967 Clipper, attended the annual workshop at Ohio University. We were the first annual staff at Columbiana High School to send representatives to the workshop. While we were there, we grasped many new ideas and began plans for the 1967 Clipper.

At the beginning of September, we decided to change publishers and chose Inter-Collegiate Press. In order to follow the rules for a good yearbook, we eliminated baby pictures, the class will and prophecy, and padded covers. To improve our yearbook, we added more pages, a new section, more action shots, and senior index and activity page.

After much discussion of the pros and cons of a spring or fall delivery of the yearbook, the class of '67 voted for the first fall annual in the history of C. H. S. Also, the class chose their own design and voted to have the cover of the annual burlap.

To finance the publication, the class sold advertisements. Through the staff and class participation, the goal was exceeded.

Through much hard work, the 1967 Clipper was completed in June. As you browse through the Clipper, we sincerely hope that you enjoy the review of the 1966-1967 school year at Columbiana High School.

Marla Halverstadt & Janet Gregg
